An exceptional and most handsome Italian 18th century Venetian st. Walnut buffet credenza. The four door credenza is raised by elegant scrolled tapered legs with fine foliate feet below the beautiful double mottled serpentine shaped frieze. The doors each display a wonderful very decorative bombee shape and are decorated with bronze keyhole escutcheons, pulls and display a fine mottled border. The doors open to reveal one shelf and all original impressive hardware while the top showcases the beautiful warm Walnut grain also displaying a fine mottled border. All original patina throughout.
