A stunning Italian 19th century Baroque patinated, giltwood, and specimen marble inlaid center table. The table is raised by a fine faux painted Vert de Patricia marble base with a mottled border. The striking and most decorative central support displays beautiful and richly carved giltwood foliate movements and an exceptional and finely carved seashell reserve, set on a patinated background. The exceptional thick circular top displays an outstanding array of hexagonal shaped marbles such as Portoro, Sienna, Brocatelle d’Espagne and beautiful Porphyry set within black Belgian marble triangles, with a striking Alabastro Fiorito border.
