Base Diameter: 16.75
