A charming and high quality Italian 19th century white Carrara marble statue of a young girl, titled NON CI CREDO, signed C. LAPINI FIRENZE 1887. The statue is raised by a circular base where the title is etched. The beautiful girl wears finely carved sandals and wonderfully executed flowing garment with a shawl tied in a charming bow, all with richly sculpted details. She stands in front of a well that has a rope draped over it and an urn beside. Wonderful proportions and attention to detail.
