An exceptional and most decorative Italian 19th century Fluorite and ormolu coffee table on polychrome and giltwood bases. The beautiful rectangular plateau is raised by impressive supports with elegant ball feet below a square base with concave sides, corners, and a fine wrap around carved border. The striking baluster shaped supports display richly carved polychrome foliate reserves set on remarkable giltwood backgrounds. The plateau above displays a stunning quarter veneered Fluorite top framed within a fine inlaid band and exquisite beaded ormolu band at the border all set on handsome black Belgian marble.
