A handsome and extremely decorative Italian 19th century Louis XIV st. Walnut and Scagliola coffee table. The rectangular table is raised by four elegant turned legs with lovely mottled designs and block reserves connected by a turned H shaped stretcher. The top displays a beautifully fitted scagliola plaque with superb intricately detailed scrolled foliate designs with a stunning array of colorful flowers and charming leaves. At the center is an impressive coat of arms with three stars and a nesting bird below a crown and a knight's helmet amidst additional beautiful scrolled foliate designs.
