A most elegant Italian 19th century Genovese st. burl walnut, kingwood, and tulipwood side table. The table is raised by slender cabriole legs with fine pierced wrap around ormolu sabots and lovely tulipwood fillets extending up and along each side. At the bombé shaped arbalest frieze are two drawers, each decorated with richly chased ormolu keyhole escutcheons, on a striking burl walnut background framed within a tulipwood fillet. The beautiful scalloped shaped top displays a central circular burl walnut reserve, framed within fine tulipwood fillets and a striking quarter veneered kingwood band. Lovely proportions and movement throughout.
