A charming and finely detailed Italian 19th century Louis XV st. Giltwood, Sienna Marble, and Breccia Pavonazza marble coffee table. This beautiful table is raised on four scrolled Giltwood cabriole legs with carved rosettes atop each leg. The arbalest shaped front apron displays scrolling foliate decorations and a carved central reserve. The two side aprons are each decorated in the same manner as the front with their scrolling foliate decorations and carved central reserve. The gorgeous scallop shaped butterfly veneered Breccia Pavonazza marble top is edged with Sienna marble and follow the shape of the coffee table.
