A most elegant Italian 19th century Louis XVI st. giltwood and Sarrancolin marble side table. The rectangular table is raised by beautifully tapered baluster shaped legs with fine topie shaped feet with block rosettes and reeded mottled top caps. Each leg is connected by a striking curved stretcher with richly carved beaded and foliate bands and a central rosette. Above each leg are remarkable carved palmettes with exceptional lyre reserves at the center flanked by beautiful berried laurel branches repeated at the back with similar designs on each side. Above is the original Sarrancolin marble top with a fine mottled border.
