A stunning and monumental Italian 19th century Louis XVI st. giltwood double framed mirror. The original central beveled mirror plate is framed within a fine mottled border and displays a beautiful bevel. With a striking recessed bottom carved band, a lovely detailed rosette and lattice pattern. To each side are most impressive large foliate movements with intricately carved and striking etched mirror plates leading up each side. Beautiful giltwood scrolls at the center and side are connected by unique and rare richly chased ormolu swaging floral garlands. At the top is the most decorative and impressive carved recessed rosette and lattice patterns. All below the spectacular top crown, centered by a majestic seashell reserve and flanked by lovely foliate branches. All original gilt throughout.
