A fine and most decorative Italian 19th century Louis XVI st patinated and giltwood bench from Tuscany. The bench is raised by elegant slightly curved square tapered patinated legs with a fine giltwood fillet border. The front two legs display a richly carved giltwood foliate design element leading to the straight frieze. At the frieze is a fluted giltwood design framed within a mottled and a twisted giltwood band and finely carved giltwood rosettes at the corners. With all original gilt and patina throughout.
