A striking and most elegant Italian 19th century Louis XVI st. patinated, giltwood and Sienna marble console. The wall mounted console is raised by two circular tapered flute legs with fine reeded ball feet and beautiful foliate and acanthus leaf carvings. The straight frieze displays a mottled giltwood border and exceptional richly carved acanthus leaves and an impressive extremely decorative les ous designed band. Above is the original beautifully veneered Sienna marble top. All original gilt and patina throughout.
