Above each leg are remarkable richly carved block rosettes flanking the straight apron which displays lovely fluted and hand painted designs. Above is the original fitted Brèche Violette marble top framed within a charming and most decorative wrap around twisted ribbon border.
