A sensational and high quality Italian 19th century Louis XVI st. white Carrara marble statue. The statue is raised by an oblong base with a fine wrap around mottled border. Above are five most charming and richly sculpted cherubs who are joyfully playing and dancing amidst finely sculpted flowers. Each displays finely detailed curly hair and intricate attention to detail. The two cherubs at the right are holding hands while the central one plays a pan flute. The jovial cherubs at the left are dancing and holding flowers. Wonderful attention to detail and lovely subject matter.
