A very impressive and decorative Italian 19th century marble fountain. The fountain is raised on a solid incarnat turquin base with a curved pedestal accented with vert turquin marble veneers and sienna marble borders. The large D shaped basin has molded edges and a central drain. The scrolled back splash is centered with vert turquin marble with sienna marble trim and a central reserve from which extends the patinated bronze spout in the shape of a swan. Centered at the top crown is an oval Lapis Lazuli semi precious stone amidst stunning scrolls.
