A beautiful Italian 19th century Neo-Classical st. walnut and tulipwood pedestal, with one door and one drawer. The pedestal column is raised by a square base with elegant feet and a central drawer, decorated with lovely floral tulipwood marquetry. The circular central support displays one door with a fine inlaid tulipwood lyre, centered by a fine foliate band. The door displays an elegant ormolu keyhole escutcheon and palmette key, which opens to reveal one shelf. The top lip also displays a lovely floral inlaid design. The top has a fine French polished finish, showcasing the beautiful walnut grain. All original warm patina throughout.
