A beautiful Italian 19th century Neo-Classical st. Walnut, ormolu, giltwood and white Carrara marble center table. The table is raised by unique and most decorative reeded giltwood feet below the triangular bottom tier showcasing the exceptional wood grain and displaying concave sides decorated with striking richly chased ormolu rosettes and pierced palmettes. The three deer shaped legs display handsome richly carved paw feet, striking giltwood central leaves and unique and most decorative scrolled swan necks and finely detailed heads. The apron displays additional richly chased ormolu rosettes and pierced palmettes set on a beautiful Walnut background all below the original solid white Carrara marble top.
