A stunning Italian 19th century Neo-Classical st. white Carrara marble and pietra dura side table. The table is raised by a white Carrara marble pedestal support with a circular mottled base where a charming and richly sculpted putti is standing with his hair tied back and draped in a wonderfully executed flowing fabric while holding a finely detailed cornucopia. The circular pietra dura top depicts spectacular intricately inlaid geometric designs of a beautiful array of marbles including black Belgian, Rouge Royale, Vert Maurin, Brocatelle d'Espagne, Imperial Porphyry, and green Porphyry to name a few.
