A most impressive and high quality Italian 19th century Neo-Classical st. white Carrara marble bench. The bench is raised by two elegant supports with scrolled designs and striking acanthus leaves. The bench seat displays a finely detailed and most charming foliate band at the border with scrolled pierced elements that lead up each side decorated with beaded bands and lovely recessed panels. The back support displays a stunning wonderfully executed scene of men in battle with Centaurs and beautiful maidens and cherubs retreating. The exceptional top crown above displays a central heart shaped crest flanked by a richly carved man and woman at each side.
