A sensational and extremely decorative Italian 19th Century Neo-Classical st. center table. The table is raised by three patinated dark green and giltwood ball and claw leg supports. The legs have burnished fur, nails all over the gilt ball under the claw. Above is the warm and richly colored walnut apron with a bottom gilt trim. Above each leg at the apron is a decorative ormolu and patinated bronze mount in the shape of a star. At the top lays a most impressive and thick Breche Medicis marble top.
