A stunning and wonderfully executed Italian 19th century oil on canvas painting titled "View of Livorne" by Pietro Della Valle. The painting depicts a magnificent sunrise with particular attention to detail and exceptional coloration. With the tide out and boats moored, young men fish in the foreground with a ruin to the left and a port and mountains in the background. Framed in its original giltwood frame with elegant mottled and richly carved foliate, hammered, and fluted designs with a charming and finely detailed berried laurel band at the border. All original gilt throughout.
