A sensational and very high quality Italian early 19th century pair of Louis XVI st. ormolu and porphyry candlesticks. The pair are raised by burnished ormolu bases with ball supports and a top beaded band. The porphyry square base is decorated by an ormolu beaded band and berried laurel wreath above. The solid porphyry fluted fut is elegantly decorated by two different sized ormolu chandelles. At the top is the circular candle cup a satin with a burnished band and fluted designs, accented by a swaging berried laurel garland. All original fire gilding throughout.
