A handsome and elegant Italian 19th century ebony and ivory inlaid desk. The four impressive tapering fluted turned legs end with topie shaped supports. The legs are joined by an ivory filet inlaid 'H' shaped stretcher with curved sides and central finial. The straight apron above has a large drawer at the front and is decorated by a very attractive ivory reserve of stylized scrolling floral sprays. The moulded edged top has an attractive ebony border with central ivory inlaid reserves of a satyr mask amidst foliage, and a rosette at each corner, centered by a fitted tooled red leather.
