An exquisite Italian 19th century white Carrara and Brocatelle d'Espagne marble fountain. The wall mounted fountain is raised by a square Brocatelle d'Espagne base below a lovely stepped design. The most decorative scrolled central support displays a stunning richly sculpted acanthus leaf below the most impressive reeded and mottled basin. The basin is also finished on the inside and displays a central drainage hole and beautiful marble veins. The plaque above displays a masterfully executed central horse's head with intricate attention to detail. The horse is set on a beautiful Brocatelle d'Espagne marble background and framed within a white Carrara marble border. At each corner are charming and extremely elegant curved and scrolled designs. Wonderful proportions.
