A sensational and large scaled Italian 19th century Wrought Iron and marble center/dining table. The rectangular table is raised on an impressive Wrought Iron base with scrolled designs and wrap around bands joined at the center by two elongated scrolled supports. Above is the impressive and long marble top with an array of inlaid marbles, Breccia Africano, Porphyry and Cipollino Fasciato to name a few. Three large Breccia Africano diamonds center the top and are bordered by large Cipollino Fasciato marble panels, with outer bands of Porphyry and Breccia Africano bordering the table. Wonderful presence and proportions throughout.
