A stunning and statement making Italian 19th Neo-Classical st. octagonal Pietra Dura marble center table. The table is raised by an impressive white Carrara marble octagonal base with a stepped and mottled circular design below the elegant baluster shaped central column. The spectacular and most decorative octagonal top displays a superb array of inlaid marble. At the center is a fabulous checker board pattern with Sienna and Basque Breccia marble, framed within white Carrara and black Belgian marble borders. Leading outwards are fossilized marble reserves flanked by exceptional and most unique inlaid diamond shaped mother of pearl set on a Rouge Antique background. The trapezoid shapes display Alabastro de Fiorito, Onyx and Sienna marble framed within a white Carrara and black Belgian marble fillets and a striking Grand Antique mottled marble border which extends around the table top. Gorgeous combination of coloration and mediums.
