A handsome and most impressive Italian early 18th century Baroque period ebonized fruitwood, walnut, burl walnut, fruitwood and charmwood octagonal center table. The table is raised by a tripod base with impressive richly carved paw feet below large scrolled designs and elegant interlocking carved patterns. The octagonal top displays a carved decorative wrap around band and four drawers at the apron. The top displays striking designs of exceptionally executed inlaid floral patterns with lovely and most unique foliate movements all in an exceptional array of exotic woods.
