A most unique and impressive Italian early 18th century Baroque st. giltwood triple mirror/wall decor. The remarkable and extremely decorative mirror/wall decor is raised by four mottled block supports below scrolled designs flanking central shell like carvings. Above are additional foliate scrolls which lead towards three open winged cherub faces. Above are six rectangular tapered mirror plates which are framed within additional scrolled designs and cherub faces. At the top are foliate decorated finials. Wonderfully decorative.
