A beautiful Italian early 18th century Tuscan st. Walnut gateleg dining table.

The table is raised by elegant mottled feet below striking richly carved squared and baluster shaped legs each connected by a stretcher with similar designs. Above is the solid Walnut top showcasing the warm Walnut wood grain with a drop down at each side which lifts up via its original hardware supported by a scalloped support which rotates out to secure it in place. All original patina throughout.

Dimensions with sides folded down:

H: 31.25" L: 73.25" D: 52"
