A beautiful and extremely decorative Italian early 19th century Baroque st. giltwood, polychrome and glass coffee table. The table is raised by an elegantly curved base with a superb stepped mottled design and a lovely wrap around polychrome band. At the center is a remarkable and richly carved blooming floral reserve set on a polychrome background with charming sunflowers at each corner. Four impressive giltwood supports lead upwards with a polychrome underside to the striking scalloped shaped frame with a fine mottled design framing the fitted glass top.
