A beautiful and most decorative Italian early 19th century Baroque st. patinated, giltwood, and Sarrancolin marble console. The freestanding console is raised by exceptional cabriole legs with impressive scrolled designs with acanthus leaves at the feet with striking richly carved blooming flowers at the corners. The pierced frieze displays stunning movements with lovely gadroon designs, giltwood accents are superb foliate carvings. Above is the original thick Sarrancolin marble top with a fine double mottled border.
