A superb and most charming Italian early 19th century mecca and pressed metal chandelier. The six arm chandelier is centered by beautiful pressed metal acanthus leaves below the striking most decorative mecca support. The support displays a triangular shape with cut corners and remarkable carved designs with an impressive central reserve from where the arms branch out. Each elegantly scrolled arm is adorned with wonderful colorful pressed metal leaves and charming flowers leading to lovely floral bobeches and candle cups. The central fut above also displays a triangular shape with cut corners and exceptional carvings all below the pressed metal foliate top crown and spiraled support with its original foliate canopy. All original patina throughout.

Height including chain and canopy: 71"
