A charming Italian late 19th century Louis XIV st. giltwood cocktail/coffee table. The cocktail table is raised by lovely circular feet below elegantly scrolled legs. Leading us each leg are richly carved acanthus leaves and fine foliate patterns. The four legs are connected by a beautiful pierced scrolled stretcher with fluted designs and a finely detailed central foliate reserve. Above is the glass top fitted within a decorative mottled giltwood border and affixed by richly chased patinated bronze rosettes.
