A fine Country French 19th century Louis XV st. oak and Rouge Royale de Votele marble center table. The rectangular center table is raised by elegant cabriole legs with fine scrolled feet. Each leg is attached by a scrolled mottled stretcher with a striking central foliate finial. A most attractive carved fillet extends up each leg and along the lovely scalloped shaped apron which is decorated with richly carved foliate and floral carvings centering an impressive and finely detailed seashell reserve. Above is the original Rouge Royale de Votele marble top with a superb scalloped shape and a fine double mottled border.
