A handsome and large scale French 18th century country French Louis XV period walnut buffet. The buffet raised by Roqvillard supports has an elegant scalloped frieze with a carved central shell. Above are the four solid walnut mottled doors. The central two doors with a curved design below a pull out service platform flanked by a drawer on each side. The buffet retains all original patinated bronze hardware and impressive locks. At the top lays its original Rouge Royal marble top. Fine quality and rich, warm patina throughout.
