A very elegant French 18th century Louis XV period mahogany petite commode. The commode is raised on cabriole legs with pierced wrap around ormolu sabots. The arbalest shaped frieze is centered by a finely chased scrolled foliate mount, with inset molded edge panels at each side. Each of the three drawers is centered by a scrolled ormolu keyhole escutcheon, flanked by superb and finely chased scrolled ormolu handles. All below the thick Brèche Violette marble top. With all original gilt and warm patina throughout.
