A most attractive and unusual French 18th century Louis XVI period rectangular giltwood mirror, with all original gilt and mirror plate. The mirror supports decorated by laurel leaf sprays and carvings throughout. With a rosette carved block at each corner. The sensational pierced lattice designed frame is enclosed between an exquisite carved beaded row border and a rich 'Rais de Coeur' exterior border. At the top is a break shaped pierced pediment centered by a stunning shell carving, flanked by flowers.
