A stunning triangular shaped French 19th century Louis XV st. ormolu and rock crystal eight light chandelier. At the bottom is a solid rock crystal ball below the fanciful and foliate rocaille style base decorated with a foliate and lattice design. Throughout the chandelier is an array of exquisite smooth water drop, cut water drop and kite shaped rock crystals. All adorning the richly chased S scrolled arms displaying flowing acanthus leaf patterns and providing three levels of lighting. All original crystals and gilt throughout.
