A handsome French 19th century Louis XV st. true pair of patinated bronze and ormolu lamps. Each lamp is raised on a richly chased roccaille base in a satin and burnished finish with foliate movements and cabochons. The bronze center display a recessed twisted design with fine foliate ormolu mounts at the top and bottom. Each lamp twists in a different direction and the pierced top displays an elegant and richly chased floral bouquet in a satin and burnished finish. Gold pleated shade below an acorn finial. All original gilt and patina.
