A very decorative and elegant French 19th century Louis XV st. patinated four door buffet. The buffet is raised on a scalloped base with four paneled doors above. Each door and rounded side has scrolled recessed panels decorated in the front with finely carved foliate scrolls. Each door has a patinated bronze key and keyhole escutcheon and opens to reveal two shelves and four hidden drawers at the top. All below the scalloped solid mottled edge top. All original hardware and patina throughout.
