A stunning French 19th century Louis XVI st. Belle Époque period Onyx and ormolu centerpiece vase. The centerpiece is raised by a triangular base with concave sides with a most decorative mottled design and a fine bottom ormolu band. At the center are three cherubs, likely young Bacchus, with grapes and oak leaves in their hair, leaning forward supporting the beautiful onyx bowl. The elegantly shaped bowl displays a striking and richly chased wrap around ormolu band with a superb interlocking pattern set on a lattice background and a fine ormolu band borders. The inside displays a fine ormolu finish where the original pewter removable fitted insert rests.
