An exquisite French 19th century Louis XVI st. Biscuit de Sèvres garniture clock set. The set has a pair of urns of prosperity with two cherubs on each side holding finely detailed floral garlands. Each urn is raised on a circular ormolu base decorated by a finely chased central ormolu band with handles, topped with an ormolu berried finial lid. The clock is raised by a square base with ormolu plaques, in the manner of Clodion. Above is a fluted column with the enamel dial and ormolu border, amidst floral garlands and a bow above. At the top is a fine bust of Marie Antoinette.
