A very charming French 19th century Louis XVI st. giltwood petite console.

This freestanding console is raised on tapered reeded legs above topie shaped feet and rosette block. The legs are joined by a double rounded geometric stretcher centered with an urn of prosperity with inverted finial below and acorn finial above. The impressive pierced frieze is centered by a B monogram decorated with draped floral garlands on each side. All below the original white Carrara marble top. All original gilt.
