A spectacular French 19th century Louis XVI st. onyx and red marble pedestal column. The column is raised by a square base with elegant ormolu feet and a most decorative stepped design of alternating marble and onyx, with a fine ormolu foliate wrap around band. The square support above displays foliate ormolu rosettes at each side. The striking circular fluted green onyx central column displays a beautiful ormolu berried laurel bottom cap and foliate central wrap around band. Above is the most impressive and richly chased ormolu capital which swivels via its original mechanism. All below the most elegant stepped and mottled square display top.
