A most decorative French 19th century Louis XVI st. ormolu and porcelain Guéridon. The side table is raised by a triangular base with concave sides and its original casters. The three elegant lightly curved legs display richly chased hoof feet with fine acanthus leaves, while the top is a beautiful hanging hoop amidst additional detailed acanthus leaves. The legs are joined by a most decorative stretcher and a lovely foliate and acorn finial mount at the center. Above is the superb original porcelain fitted top with a Cloisonné border and an outer beaded ormolu gallery. The porcelain displays charming cherubs playing and flying with their bows, amidst figures and a dog in a beautiful garden.
