A lovely and very high quality French 19th century Louis XVI st. ormolu Jardiniere fitted with 18th century signed Sèvres porcelain plaques. Raised on four handsome ormolu paw feet below an elegant fluted design with a top acorn finial at each corner. Centered at the front and back are charming hand painted Sèvres porcelain plaques of a flower arrangement within a painted rose border and framed within an ormolu beaded trim. At each side are round hand painted plaques of flowers in a circular pattern with vivid colors framed in a fine ormolu band. Inside is a removable fitted lining.
