An elegant French 19th century Louis XVI st. silvered bronze centerpiece with its original copper insert. The centerpiece is raised by foliate designed rectangular feet below a detailed quiver and eternal flame with a tied reeded band. At the center is a smooth cabochon amidst richly chased berried laurels and charming pierced oblong patterns. At each side are wonderful swaging berried laurel garlands and above is a berried laurel band along the scalloped shaped top amidst fine tied ribbons. Inside is the original removable fitted copper insert
