A striking and extremely elegant French 19th century Louis XVI st. ormolu and Vert Campan marble lamp. The large scale lamp is raised by beautiful mottled feet below finely detailed rosettes flanking fitted Vitruvian scrolls centered by a charming floral reserve. The socle shaped pedestal support displays a lovely fluted design and berried laurel and beaded wrap around bands. The elegant elongated Vert Campan marble body is encased by large acanthus leaves with beautiful richly chased maidens' faces at each side connected by a fine foliate band in a most decorative satin and burnished finish. The lightly curved neck above also displays a finely detailed wrap around foliate band.
