A spectacular and monumental French 19th century Napoleon III period ebony and ormolu grand buffet. This six door and five drawer buffet is raised on a solid curved side base decorated with tulipwood inlaid panels. Each remarkable door has tulipwood inlaid borders within an ormolu trim, with finely chased ormolu mounts at each corner and ormolu keyhole escutcheons. Panel designs flank each door topped with exquisite pierced ormolu mounts. At the frieze is a large central drawer flanked by smaller ones and a rounded one at each side. The drawers are accented with ormolu rosettes at each side and very elaborate ormolu keyhole escutcheons. All below the stunning solid ebony top.
