A handsome French 19th century Louis Philippe period flamed mahogany and Grand Antique marble console. The freestanding console is raised by a most decorative scalloped shaped bottom tier with two striking scrolled swan neck supports with richly carved palmettes designs at each side. The back panel showcases the beautiful flamed mahogany grain and displays a fine recessed panel with a mottled border and elegant bottom carved reeded band. The straight frieze displays block reserves above each support with the rectangular Grand Antique marble top above.
